DELAWARE ENVIROTHON HONORS AND AWARDS

CR:Delmarva

Teams of high school students from across Delaware competed May 5 in the Delaware Envirothon at Hagley Museum. The environmental education challenge tested the students on their knowledge and practical application of aquatic ecology, forestry, soils and land-use, wildlife, natural resource management in the urban environment and public speaking.

The Charter School of Wilmington's Team A, Jason Fischel, Mathew Fischel, Anjali Gupta, Stephanie Huang, Ritika Samant and alternates Peter Jaekson and Mengfei Yang was crowned state champion, with each member receiving a $3,000 annual, renewable academic scholarship from Wesley College and a $500 scholarship from Delaware Envirothon.

They will train for the North American Canon Envirothon in Springfield, Mo., in July.

Charter's Team B, Reeti Kumar, Michael Napolitano, Neil Nayak, Aditya Shirprasad, Cat Sun and alternate Radley Miller, placed second and received the $300 Ernest J. Zimmerman award toward an environmental education project at their school.

Kent County 4-H, Sage Bunch, Jennifer Crouse, Ernest Eierman, Danielle Lehman, Adam Thomas and alternate Dustin Borntreger, was awarded third place and received a $150 award, and McKean High School, Matthew Clark, Kerisa Dickson-Peppler, Allison Diggins, Felicia Megginson, Stephen Scheib and alternate Danielle Migliore, was awarded $100 for placing fourth.
