

Attention Hunters and Landowners!

Do YOU want to grow better deer and become a better deer hunter?

Plan to Attend this Free Workshop and Expo!

Delaware State Fairgrounds Exhibit Hall
Saturday February 4, 2012
Doors open @ 8am with Programs running from 9 am to 3:30 pm
Complimentary lunch to all attendees!

Vendors, One-On-One Interaction with Speakers, Taxidermy Displays, Official Boone & Crockett Scoring, Habitat Improvement, Food Plot and Forestry Exhibits' Raffles, Door Prizes and more.

Seminar topics Include:

Wildlife Habitat Management; Sustainable Forestry Practices; Benefits Quality Deer Management; Forest Conservation Management Activities; Predator Management; Mature Buck Home Ranges & Core Areas; Successful Hunting Strategies; Antler Growth and development and aging bucks on the hoof.

Speakers:

Kip Adams
QDMA Education & Outreach Coordinator
Certified Wildlife Biologist

Mark Buxton, Owner
Southeastern Wildlife Habitat Services

Dr. Mark Connor, Manager
Chesapeake Farms Chestertown MD

Joe Hamilton, QDMA Founder
Certified Wildlife Biologist

Joe Rogerson
Big Game and Furbearer Biologist
DNREC Division Fish & Wildlife

Larry Walton, Vice President
Vision Forestry, LLC

Eric Burkentine, Regional Forester
DDA Delaware Forest Service

For more info contact 302-542-6323 or visit: www.delawareqdma.org