Taylor Scuse Receives the 4-H Betty Nibblet Award

Taylor Scuse, a member of the County Line 4-H Club, received the 2007 Betty Nibblet Award at the Kent County 4-H Achievement Banquet. This is a perpetual trophy given to the 4-H'er at the State 4-H Horse Show that acquires the most points in showmanship and equitation horsemanship. This is the thirteenth year of this special recognition given in the name of a long time 4-H volunteer.

The 4-H program offers many opportunities for its members to be recognized for their accomplishments. If you would like to become part of this Delaware Cooperative Extension - University of Delaware youth education program, call the Kent Extension Office at 730-4000. The 4-H program is open to all persons regardless of race, color, sex, handicap age or national origin.
