Jeffery Sullivan Receives Outstanding 4-H Counselor Award

Jeffery Sullivan of the Harrington 4-H Club was recently chosen as the winner of the Kent County Outstanding 4-H Counselor Award. The award is sponsored by the Colter Passwater 4-H Family of Bridgeville, DE in memory of Sammy Tatman who dearly loved 4-H camp and serving as a 4-H counselor.

The winner was selected from applications that were submitted to the Kent County 4-H Office. The basis of the selection was the 4-H'ers leadership qualities, camp class development and instruction, and overall interaction with 4-H campers attending the various 4-H Summer Day Camps.

Jeffery Sullivan of Harrington, DE is 15 years old and a 10th year member of the Harrington Sunshine 4-H Club. Jeffery has been active in several 4-H project areas including sheep, shooting sports, wildlife, public presentation, citizenship and leadership. He is currently serving as the Vice-President of his local club, Treasurer of the Kent County 4-H Junior Council, and is a member of the State Teen Council.

The 4-H program is open to all persons regardless of race, color, sex, handicap, age or national origin. If you would like to be part of the University of Delaware Cooperative Extension 4-H youth educational program as a member or adult volunteer, call the Kent County Extension Office at 730-4000.
