Kent County 4-H Clubs Receive 2007 David Pritchett Community Service Award

Kent County 4-H recently recognized two 4-H clubs in Kent County as the recipients of the 2007 David Pritchett Community Service Award. This award is given annually to the top 4-H clubs for their outstanding volunteer work and efforts in their community. It is given in memory of David Pritchett who was a very active Kent County 4-H member. 4-H clubs were selected for this award based on applications that were submitted to the County 4-H Office. The recipients of the award this year were the Harrington Sunshine 4-H Club and the Westville 4-H Club. Both of these clubs performed many outstanding community service projects at the local, county and state levels.

The 4-H program is open to all persons regardless of race, color, sex, handicap, age or national origin. If you would like to be part of the University of Delaware Cooperative Extension 4-H youth educational program as a member or adult volunteer, call the Kent County Extension Office at 730-4000.
