A grade point average of at least 2.0 is required in the 20 credits of engineering technology courses for the minor.

*All engineering technology courses shall be selected with the approval of an advisor in the Department of Bioresources Engineering to meet each student’s objectives.

For students interested in natural resources and environmental issues, courses could include: BREG 103, BREG 113, BREG 215, BREG 223, BREG 321, BREG 328, BREG 421, and BREG 423.

For students interested in construction technology, courses could include: BREG 113, BREG 215, BREG 223, BREG 231, BREG 312, BREG 321, BREG 416, BREG 417, BREG 420, BREG 454, BREG 455, and BREG 456.

Updated Fall 2011