

Career Corner

Job Search Workshop: Resumes, Interviewing, and Networking

Don't wait until you graduate--start your job search today!

Thursday,
September 23,
2004
2:00 – 3:30 p.m.
233 Townsend
Hall

Come learn about strategies to gain employment and internships in the field of agriculture and natural resources.

Sponsored by the College of Agriculture and Natural Resources and the MBNA Career Services Center. For more information, contact kvanb@udel.edu.

MBNA Career Services Center: Here to Help!

Looking for an internship, part-time job or a full-time job? The UD MBNA Career Services Center can help. By registering with eRecruiting (a web based system used to link employer information and job listings), you will have access to many jobs and internships that are received daily in the Career Center. To register, attend a brief orientation. (Dates listed at www.udel.edu/CSC/happening.html) In addition, weekly career workshops are offered to help you develop a resume, learn how to interview for a job, or help you find the job you want. For an individual career meeting, contact Steve Sciscione, the CANR liaison, at scone@udel.edu.

Internships

Farm Education Internship with the Delaware Nature Society at Coverdale Farm, Greenville, Delaware.

This three-month internship supports the daily operations of an educational farm program that services DNS members, schools (currently PK - 5th grade), teachers and the public. Assist in preparation and teaching of fall farm member and school programs, provides support to the Harvest Moon Festival and help maintain teaching garden and livestock collection. This internship provides a small stipend and opportunity to gain college credit. Interested sophomore/junior students should contact Michele Wales, Farm Program Coordinator at (302) 239 - 2334 x143 for further details.

Club Information

Environmental Presentation

John Kearney, a National Environmental Trust (NET) representative, will be giving a multimedia presentation called "Conserve Our Ocean Legacy." It has toured the country for over a year and is aimed at raising awareness about the problems facing the marine environment and what can be done to restore healthy fisheries. Their website is www.oceanlegacy.org.

Wednesday, September 22nd at 7:00 pm

100 Sharp Lab

Contact:
sstolte@udel.edu

Sponsored by: Students for the Environment (S4E)

Study Abroad News

CANR Welcomes Australian Exchange Student

Welcome to Jenny Hardwicke, a Plant Science major studying in the College of Agriculture and Natural Resources for the fall semester. Jenny is a student at Charles Sturt University (CSU) in Australia and is the first undergraduate to participate in the new exchange program with CSU.

The agreement has provisions for a UD student to attend CSU next spring. CSU is rated as an outstanding university with programs in many areas of agriculture and natural resources including environmental studies, horticulture, equine science, livestock production, and food science. Go to http://www.db.csu.edu.au/division/marketing/PR_Menus/PR_Menusp5.htm to see a complete list. Undergraduates that participate in the exchange program pay tuition to UD, but take a semester of courses at CSU. Contact lchieffo@udel.edu for details.

New Zealand/Winter '05

Contact: Dr. Griffiths at lesa@udel.edu
Seats are still available; freshmen are welcome!

Courses: Topics in International Animal Agriculture: Pastoral Livestock Production in New Zealand. (ANSC 419; 4 cr.) and

Biotechnology: Science and Socio-economic Issues. (ANSC/PLSC/FREC 270; 3 cr.)

See the World!

Did you know that you can study in Brazil, China,

France, South Africa, or in a host of other countries while fulfilling your requirements towards graduation? With over 70 programs in more than 35 subjects in over 30 countries, UD has a program that suits all interests, schedules, and academic needs. Take a minute to go to www.udel.edu/studyabroad. This site includes a list of interest meetings and scholarship information.

Upcoming program application deadlines:

Winter 2005: 5 p.m. September 24

Spring 2005: 5 p.m. October 8

If you have any questions, stop by 186 South College Avenue, call 302-831-2852, or E-mail studyabroad@udel.edu,

Scholarships for Study Abroad

The Center for International Studies offers a range of scholarships for both domestic and study abroad programs. For more info: <http://international.udel.edu/studyabroad/scholarships>

Mark Your Calendar

“The Evolution of Sexist Behavior,”

presented by Dr. Doug Tallamy, Entomology & Wildlife Ecology

Research on Women Fall 2004 Lecture Series

Wednesday, September 29

12:20 – 1:10 p.m.

103 Gore Hall

Newsletter Submission Guidelines:

Talk of Townsend is produced every other Friday during the Fall, Winter and Spring semesters.

(Next issue is October 1.)

Submissions of timely and general interest are welcome. Please submit your copy in a brief statement, including dates, times, locations and contact information, via Email to kra@udel.edu by 5:00 p.m. on the Tuesday before publication.

The Office of Academic Programs reserves the right to refuse or edit announcements.